

ADRIAN JASPER BIO

Adrian Jasper is a poet/spoken word artist and a visionary force in the realm of words. Adrian Jasper Music creates a dynamic blend of spoken word and music that resonates with the soul. She enchants listeners with soul-stirring lyrics that leave a lasting impact.

Inspired by the power of words and music from a youth, Adrian is passionate about breathing life into her works to benefit the listener; with a light yet deep—smooth, laid-back feel.

She was featured on rap indie artist Hypnotical Stylz single HiDeHo (2020), and wrote lyrics titled Springtime, sung by a former Vienna Boys Choir member (2009). She opened for renowned Jazz musician Pharoah Sanders at Crest Theater in Sacramento, CA, has been featured at Art galleries, colleges, political, social, interfaith events, and a multitude of audiences invoking inspiration. She has a BA in English from National University and is from Sacramento, CA.